Joe managed to turn his world from 'ordinary' to 'extraordinary' just by planting a seed.

Tuesday

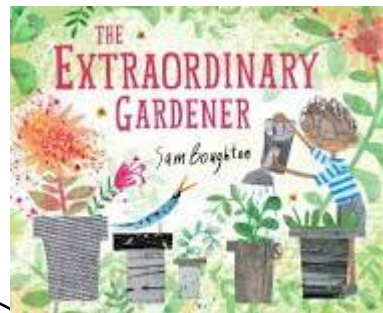

Joe's plan to change his ordinary world began just by planting a seed from an apple.

Watch this clip on YouTube to see how apple trees grow.

Joe followed step-by-step instructions to plant his seed. When you follow instructions it is very important to get them in the correct order.

Below you will find some pictures from the story. Can you put them in the correct order - you can either cut them out or number them. We will then use this sheet on Thursday to help us order our instructions correctly.

This week's book is the final story nominated for the Hampshire Picture Book Award - 'The Extraordinary Gardener' by Sam Boughton.

Don't forget to fill out the voting slip at the end of the week to let us know what you thought about the book.

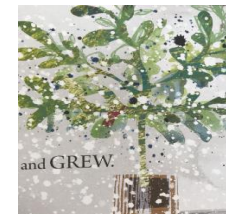

Key objectives

- Use simple word choice that helps to convey information and ideas and begin to sequence ideas.
- Write a simple sentence- compose a sentence orally before writing it, and re-read what is written to check it makes sense
- To use capital letters, finger spaces and full stops in my writing.

Thursday

Use the template below to write a set of instructions for 'How to plant a seed'. Remember to include a list of the things you will need and remember to get your instructions in the correct order.

Watch the clip on Seesaw which explains all about 'imperative' or 'bossy' verbs as you will need these for your instructions.

Friday

Use the voting slip (set as an activity on seesaw) to submit your vote for 'The Extraordinary Gardener'. As we have now read all the books nominated for the Hampshire Picture Book Award go back over your voting slips and see which was your winner! We will add up the total votes from all of year 1 and let you know our overall winner next week.

Remember to share anything you have done on SeeSaw!
